

Providing an allocation of 5.250 to 5.400 MHz to the Amateur Service on a domestic (US-only), secondary basis is a good idea. It will coordinate nicely with the Alaskan Emergency Frequency of 5.1675 MHz. As an Alaskan amateur, I welcome the proposal. By the way, your on-line submission form doesn't work, which is why I'm using this email method.